PRESS RELEASE

CITT Chair Accepts New Position

For Immediate Release

Toronto, Ontario -- The CITT officially announced today that CITT Chair of the Board Tracey Raimondo has accepted the position of Vice President of Business Development for Normandin Transit Inc., in Napierville, Quebec.

Ms. Raimondo was formerly the Vice President and co-owner of A.A. Option Transport Consultants Inc., a successful third party logistics company founded in 1990. A.A. Options was acquired by Normandin Transit in December.

Normandin Transit specializes in trans-border transportation between Canada and the United States.

Ms. Raimondo also has an extensive academic background in the logistics field having completed the Certificate in Logistics program at the University of Quebec.

After obtaining her CITT designation in 1996, Ms. Raimondo served as Chair of the Montreal Area Council. In November of 2006 she was chosen CITT Chair of the Board
