For a logistics career that stands out, professionals choose CCLP

When you see CCLP after someone's name, you immediately know you can trust their specialized logistics expertise and commitment to professional excellence. CCLP is widely held and respected across the business – from carriers of all modes to shippers across sectors, 3/4PLs and beyond.

CITT-Certified Logistics Professionals have the proven, recognized ability to manage profitable and resilient logistics operations. Professionals with CCLP after their name go further in their careers and stand out for their abilities, integrity and dedication to excellence in transportation logistics.

If you're looking to demonstrate to employers, partners, customers and your peers that you're a certified expert in transportation and logistics, look no further than Canada's Logistics Credential – CCLP.

Challenge exam available year round. Or take courses online - next start January 20, 2025
