

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deadline to Register for Spring Semester of CITT Logistics Courses is April 20

Toronto, Ontario – April 15, 2016

CITT reminds those interested in working towards its CITT-Certified Logistics Professional (CCLP®) designation that the deadline to register for a course in its upcoming semester is Wednesday, April 20. After this deadline, the next CITT courses do not start until September, so CITT encourages everyone looking to quickly earn its industry-preferred CCLP designation to sign up now at www.citt.ca/courses.

“Last spring was our biggest spring semester ever, with more people starting – and continuing – towards earning their CCLP designation than ever before” said Catherine Viglas, CITT President & CEO. “Because CITT’s professional designation is in such high demand, we’ve expanded our spring semester. Starting in 2016, we now offer every single course toward the designation year round.” Viglas added. “Students can complete their required course work in as little as 15 months. By this time next year, students starting now can be very close to adding CCLP to their professional credentials.”

Course work for CITT’s specialized logistics courses starts on April 21, so students are advised to register as soon as possible. Online registration is available 24/7 until the April 20 deadline. Anyone who has questions or needs help getting signed up can also contact CITT staff at 416-363-5696 ext. 0 or info@citt.ca
