

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deadline to Start Working Towards CITT's CCLP Designation this Year is August 31

Toronto, Ontario – August 22, 2016

CITT reminds those interested in earning its CITT-Certified Logistics Professional (CCLP®) designation that the deadline to begin CITT courses this year is August 31. CITT's next semester does not start until the new year, so professionals interested in earning CITT's industry-preferred CCLP designation are encouraged to sign up now at www.citt.ca/courses.

"Fall is traditionally our most popular semester, when the most people decide to begin working towards adding the CCLP designation to their credentials" said Catherine Viglas, CITT President & CEO. "With summer over, motivated individuals often look for professional development to enhance their career prospects and earning potential – which is what the CCLP designation offers."

"In response to demand to earn the designation as quickly as possible" Viglas continued, "we offer all courses in all three semesters, so students can complete their required course work 5 semesters – or fewer. By this time next year, students starting now can be very close to adding CCLP to their professional credentials."

Course work for CITT's specialized logistics courses starts on September 1st, so students are advised to register as soon as possible. Online registration is available 24/7 until the deadline. Anyone who has questions or needs help getting signed up can also contact CITT staff at 416-363-5696 ext. 0 or info@citt.ca
