

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Registration is Now Open for CITT's Fall Semester of Online Courses towards CCLP® designation

Toronto, Ontario – July 4, 2016

CITT has announced that registration is now open for fall courses towards its CCLP® \(CITT-Certified Logistics Professional\) designation.

These online logistics courses are requirements towards the CCLP designation, CITT's industry-preferred certification for supply chain logistics professionals. The CCLP is recommended by managers in the sector and HR professionals and is a career-building foundation for everyone who buys, sells, or manages the flow of goods and product or is impacted by supply chain logistics.

"Many professionals want to be ready to take the next big step in their career when the summer is over" said Catherine Viglas, CITT President & CEO. "Anyone interested in starting work towards their CCLP designation in the fall can figure out how quickly they can earn it based on their education and work experience using our CCLP Route Finder tool." Viglas continued. "Then, they can register online right away and enjoy the summer knowing they're ready to start working towards industry's most valued logistics designation in September."

The CCLP Route Finder can be accessed at www.citt.ca/routefinder

The CCLP designation is the most respected credential for people who work across the many SCL roles in specialized industries and in the vast supplier/service sector. The CCLP designation is held 3:1 over other logistics designations in Canada. People can learn more about CITT's courses at www.citt.ca/courses, register directly online via CITT's website at www.citt.ca or call CITT at 416.363.5696 ext. 0. After the high demand this year, people are encouraged to register for courses early to guarantee their spot.

The last day to register for CITT's Fall Semester is August 31st. Courses start on September 1st, 2016.

CITT is industry's most valued and respected source of logistics courses, professional certification and expertise.
