CITT announces president & CEO Catherine Viglas to Retire in October 2017

Toronto, Ontario – September 19, 2016

It was announced at the September 13, 2016 general board meeting of the CITT Board of Directors that CITT president & CEO Catherine Viglas will retire from her post in one year, at the end of October 2017.

Catherine has served as the President of the CITT for over 17 years, and will continue with her usual functions and duties as well as support the seamless transition to the new president.

“The board would like to take this opportunity to publicly express our deepest thanks and appreciation for Catherine’s tireless energy and commitment to CITT,” said Ginnie Venslovaitis, CITT-Certified Logistics Professional and current Chair of the CITT Board of Directors. “I am not sure we would be where we are today as an organization without her in the role.”

A succession planning committee has been formed to recruit Catherine’s successor.
