

CITT elects Ginnie Venslovaitis, CCLP, as Incoming Chair of the Board of Directors

Toronto, Ontario – During CITT’s AGM on October 26th at Canada Logistics Conference 2015, Ginnie Venslovaitis, CCLP, was elected as the new Chair of the Board of Directors. She replaces outgoing Chair Robert Ramsay, CCLP, who served as chair for the 2013-2015 term.

“I’ve very pleased to have been elected as the new CITT Chair of the Board for 2015-2016” said Mrs. Venslovaitis in her first remarks as new Chair. “Robert’s guidance and commitment, along with that of the entire Board of Directors has helped CITT accomplish great things which will continue to build the reputation of professional excellence for CITT and CITT-Certified Logistics Professionals.”

“I think I speak for everyone on the new board when I say we’re very excited about the new offerings and products, such as webinars that we’re making available to everyone in the supply chain logistics sector. And, of course, we continue to add value, support, and industry-wide promotion for those who hold the CCLP designation and the students working towards it.”

Seeking to gain more complete knowledge of the transportation industry in Canada, Ginnie Venslovaitis, CCLP, began working towards her designation from CITT at the recommendation of a supervisor. She earned her designation in 1998 and has been active with CITT since, having served on the Board of Directors in various capacities since 2009.

Also joining her on CITT’s Board of Directors are:
